Indo-Sri Lanka accord

3070. SHRI V. GOPALSAMY:
SHRI K. GOPALAN:

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) what progress has been made in the implementation of the Indo-Sri Lanka accord so far; and

(b) what is the outcome of the latest talks between the High Commissioner of India in Sri Lanka and the Sri Lankan Government?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI K. NATWAR SINGH): (a) Considerable progress has been made in the implementation of the Indo-Sri Lanka Agreement to establish Peace and Normalcy in Sri Lanka signed on 29th July, 1987 in Colombo. As envisaged in the Agreement, the Sri Lankan Government have withdrawn their troops to pre May 25, 1987 positions. The Home Guards have been disarmed. The Sri Lankan Government has declared amnesty for militants who lay down arms and support the Agreement. They have released over 3000 Tamil political prisoners. The return of refugees from India and the process of resettlement of displaced persons has started. The Sri Lankan Government have passed legislation setting up Provincial Councils and devolving power to them.

They have also passed an election law for holding elections to the Provincial Councils. Steps are now being taken to organize elections to the Provincial Councils so that the will of Tamils can find democratic expression. The Government of India is constantly monitoring further progress.

(b) Our High Commissioner has regular consultations with the Sri Lankan Government. Discussions in such meetings cover areas of mutual interest, especially questions relating to the implementation of the Indo-Sri Lanka Agreement.
